

Help Us Celebrate Our 30th Season!

Jewish Theatre Grand Rapids invites you to join us as we present three plays this season to delight, enrich, and entertain you. We will see if 30-something Izzy gets matched with the famous author or the pickleman down the street in Crossing Delencency. In Creation of the World, we will see how Adam and Eve finally get interested in sex. And in Indecent, we will see how a little Yiddish play finally makes it to Broadway, only to have it's entire cast locked up. This will be a great season of shows that you will not want to miss.

Save up to 30% with a Season Flex Pass. Get one or more sets of three tickets to use any time for only $60 if purchased before November 1st, 2022. That is a $24 savings from individual ticket prices. You can mail in the form below or submit electronically through our website jtgr.org.

Be Part of te Family. This important cultural resource cannot exist without the considerable support of our family and friends. Our mission is to present to both the Jewish community and wider audiences topics that resonate and educate. We also create great opportunities for the many actors, designers, stage hands and numerous volunteers to polish their craft. And even though the costs to produce our shows have increased at a steady pace, we are determined to keep our ticket prices affordable. Please consider making a generous donation to Jewish Theatre Grand Rapids so we can continue to present quality theatrical experiences for another 30 years.

2022-2023 SEASON

Crossing Delancey by Susan Sandler. You may recognize this title as it also became a hit movie in 1988. It is a romantic comedy that explores the life of a young, New York woman whose traditional Jewish grandmother sets her up with a matchmaker who tries to set her up with the pickleman. This play will be performed in an intimate “Black Box” setting.
Sept. 28 & 29, Oct. 1, 5, 6 & 8 at 7:30 PM
Oct 2 & 9 at 3:00 PM

The Creation of the World and Other Business by Arthur Miller (Death of a Salesman, The Crucible, etc.) This play is a parable that explores the theme of good-versus-evil by way of a comedic retelling of events in the Book of Genesis. God wants Adam and Eve to procreate, but doesn’t know how to move the process along. Onto the scene comes Lucifer, who thinks he has the solution.
Feb 2, 4, 9 & 11 at 7:30 PM
Feb 5 & 12 at 3:00 PM

Indecent is a Tony Award winning semi-musical play by Paula Vogel. It chronicles the controversy surrounding God of Vengeance by Sholem Asch. This play was infamous in the early 1900s for its depiction of a lesbian relationship between a Jewish brothel owner’s daughter and one of his prostitutes. During its run on Broadway in 1923, the producer and cast were arrested and convicted on grounds of obscenity.
