ANNOUNCING: Jewish Theatre Grand Rapids 2026-2027

A season of intrusive identities

Parade by Alfred Uhy and Jason Robert Brown chronicles the wrongful conviction of Leo Frank for the murder of 13-year-old Mary Phagan--and the heroic efforts by his wife Lucille to save her husband. Set in Georgia between 1913 and 1915, this Tony Award-winning musical features a large cast, spectacular music, and issues all too relevant a century later.

Broken Glass is one of the best later plays by America's most famous playwright, Auther Miller. Set in Brooklyn in 1938, the play follows Sylvia Gellburg, a Jewish housewife who suddenly finds herself paralyzed after obsessing over the grim news coming out of Europe.

Short Circuit, by Noa Lazar Keinan is an immersive presentation about the zany ways a husband and wife cope with having an autistic 5 year-old. Be prepared to take part in this funny and sensitive story at the Dog Story Theater, 340 State Street SE 49503.

Pizza Bagels, by Matthew Libby follows two Jewish Italian families that are thrust together by a DNA matching website. It explores what happens when one's self identity is turned upside down.

All plays, except Short Circuit, are at GRCC's Spectrum Theater 160 Fountain St. NE 49503.

Get Involved

For more than thirty years Jewish Theatre has enhanced the cultural life of Grand Rapids. Each season nearly 100 actors, directors, designers, stagehands, and other volunteers create an immersive experience that only live theater can produce. Presenting quality drama that resonates and educates is expensive, however, and only possible because of our generous donors. Please help us to sustain this effort by donating to Jewish Theatre Grand Rapids.

It's easy to order your Flex Pass and make a donation by using the form on this brochure OR through our website. Scan this code or connect to JTGR.org for instant access. Thank you!
